10th Sunday in Ordinary Time Reading

The God of Israel has a heart where anger & mercy have entered into combat. But God is not a human being: he cherishes his unfaithful people & allows them to live.

Where Israel was a child I love him, out of Egypt I called my son. Yet It was I who taught Ephraim to walk, who took them in my arms.

I drew them with human cords, with bands of love.

I fostered them like one who raises an infant to his cheeks; yet, though I stooped to feed my child, they did not know that I was their healer.

My heart is overwhelmed, my pity is stirred. I will not give vent to my blazing anger, I will not destroy Ephraim again; For I am God and not man, the Holy One present among you; I will not let the flames consume you.

Father Ron will be showing this before Mass this weekend:

ST. MICHAEL’S PRAYER
Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle . Be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

The Conference of Bishops gives directives to how to physically receive Holy Communion.

The recent Feast of Corpus Christi warrants a refresher for us all. Unless one is infirmed, these norms are to be followed. In this way, the priest knows that you are practicing & attentive, for he is the guardian of ensuring reverence for the Blessed Sacrament.

When receiving on the hand, either kneeling or standing, the following are the Church’s directives:

- Make a cross with hands, left on the right, slightly cupped (Father should not touch your hand, not too cupped)
- Take the host with your underneath right hand & place in your mouth (& perhaps then make a sign of the cross)
- If kneeling, then stand & return down the side aisle to your seat, only after you have received.

Not to Do:

- Stand & walk away before receiving
- Put the host in your mouth with the hand of receiving (scooping).

Building our Parish Community

Project Advance 2024

May 2024

Dear Parishioners of Sts. Peter & Paul Parish,

We are excited to share with you the progress of our new parish centre project, which will serve the needs of our congregation for years to come.

This project has been a long-term vision of our parish, started of course by Father John Horgan. We are grateful for the hard work and dedication of our building committee, our architects, our contractors and our parish staff who have brought us this far.

We are now in the final stages of securing the approval of the archdiocese and the city. With your help of a pledge to Project Advance, we hope to break ground in but a couple of years. The immediate plan is to sell Cartier Hall at the optimum price, in order to substantial pay for the new Centre.

We thank you, our parishioners, for you generous donations and your prayers for this project. We look forward to new families also making a pledge this year.

Together, we are building a parish centre that will be a place of prayer, fellowship, education and service for our community.

Thank you again for considering a pledge to our Project Advance 2024 campaign!
These pledges may be mailed or dropped in the collection basket anytime before Dec. 31st.

Blessings and Peace!

Fr. Ron Thompson

Adoration was never a passive practice for any of these saints.

The gift of the abiding Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist flows out of the liturgy, and adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament can strengthen one’s preparation in the Mass. Both individual and communal forms of Eucharistic devotion provide short or even extended periods of silence, which is essential for fruitful active participation in the sacred liturgy. Further, worship is not limited to what takes place explicitly within the Mass.

The new form of worship given to us by Jesus Christ includes the transformation of the faithful person. Consequently, Eucharistic adoration precludes any form of passivity when it comes to charity. Benedict XVI has made it clear that the Holy Eucharist is “intrinsically fragmented” without an explicit expression of charity for one’s neighbor (see Deus Caritas Est, 14). If people are passive or indifferent towards their neighbor despite the practice of Eucharistic devotion, then the conclusion to be drawn is not that Eucharistic adoration is inherently passive. These people are not fully worshipping Christ in spirit and truth because of the inseparable link between the Eucharist and mission.

Adoration precedes Holy Communion and brings communion to its logical fulfilment. Communion unifies an individual to both God and neighbor. We should encourage the practice of all forms of Eucharistic devotion during this period of Eucharistic revival and we need to do a better job in our catechesis, preaching, and teaching about the unity between the celebration of the Mass, Eucharistic devotion, and social action. In other words, we need to be clearer about the inherent nature of the Eucharist as a “sacrament of charity.” O Come, let us adore Him!
