SUNDAY READINGS: PENTECOST SUNDAY

Do not be surprised that I tell you, you must be all begotten from above..., but you do not know where it (the wind) comes from or where it goes" (John 3:7-8). Although Luke places the sending forth of the Spirit on Pentecost, fifty days after the Resurrection, John places it on Easter night. Each one, then, has his own way of portraying the glorification of Jesus. For John, this glorification took place when He was raised up on the cross. For both, the Spirit is the fruit of the victory Christ won by His death and resurrection. Pentecost cannot be separated from Easter.

But why must the disciples receive the Spirit? From Luke's perspective, they must receive the Spirit to be able to speak to all in their proper language and thus inaugurate the universal mission of the Church. John does not say anything different, but he says it in a different way. The apostles are in the upper room with all the doors locked for fear of the Jews. They are afraid and their fear is contagious. They are attentive to every sound outside. They fear arrest. Suddenly, Jesus is there in their midst: "Peace be with you!" Peace is what they lack most in this atmosphere of anxiety. Jesus still carries the marks of His passion. He is there, alive and stronger than death. The doors which were once locked no longer hinder His mission.

The hour is no longer one of self-centered fear. Now is the time to allow the Spirit to shatter all barriers and lead the Church where God wills.

ST. MICHAEL'S PRAYER

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do Thou, o Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The Solemnities of the Ascension and Pentecost:

Dear parishioners,

In an earlier message, I took the opportunity to highlight that the five Sundays of June this year are all special Solemnities; namely: June 1st: Ascension, June 8th: Pentecost, June 15th: Holy Trinity, June 22nd: ‘Corpus Christi,’ and June 29th: Saints Peter and Paul.

On the 40th day of Easter, that is, the Ascension, we celebrate the conclusion of our Lord’s earthly life. Saint Luke the Evangelist, in his second book, the ‘Acts of the Apostles’ shared that he had already: “In the first book (the Gospel of Luke)... dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach until the day he was taken up” (1:1,2). Also, in this book: he “presented himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days” (1:3).

Then, Luke Shares of our Lord’s words to us: “You shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit” (1:5) and “you shall receive the power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you” (1:8).

So: “as they were looking on, he was lifted up and the cloud took him out of their sight,” (1:9) with the promise: “This Jesus who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven” (1.11).

Our Nicene Creed makes special reference to the result of the Lord’s Ascension, namely: “He is seated (present tense) at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead.” And the Eucharistic Preface prays: “he ascended, not to distance himself from our lowly state but that we, his members, might be confident of following where he our Head and Founder, has gone before.” “He is seated” is literally, the ‘as we speak’ reality; and from there, as Head of the Church, he continues to grace the Church on earth for he is: “with us always until the close of the age” (Mt.28:20).

The Christian Pentecost shares out the promised gift of the Holy Spirit to be the Soul; the Life-giving Principle of the Church. How helpful for us also, is the Solemnity that follows Pentecost, namely the Holy Trinity, in order for the Church to realize the full impact of the Holy Spirit as the shared love of the Father and the Son.

To prepare for this outpouring with the 9 days between the Ascension and Pentecost is the original 9 days (Novena) where Mary and the Apostles wait and pray in the Upper Room for this to occur. We do well also to pray in preparation for Pentecost anew for us.

In Liturgy, the Church renders to the present moment all the saving works of salvation into the present age, so that the present believers of the Church might also experience the fruit of all these graces anew.

Blessed Abbot Columba Marmion (+1923) wrote, in his book ‘Christ in His Mysteries’ about Pentecost and the significance of the ‘Tongues of Fire’ and the ‘Powerful Wind.’

Of all these he wrote that: “The Holy Spirit appeared under the form of tongues of fire in order to fill the Apostles with Truth and to prepare them to bear witness to Jesus. He also came to fill their hearts with Love.” In the ‘Powerful Wind’: “the Divine Spirit communicated such an abundance of life to the whole Church that to symbolize it ‘there came a sound from heaven, as of a Powerful Wind coming, and it filled the whole house where they (the Apostles) were sitting.’”

Then, Abbot Marmion prepares us in the present day: “But it is also for us that the Holy Spirit has come... to remain with the Church forever. This is the promise of Jesus Himself. He dwells in the Church permanently and unfailingly, performing in it without ceasing His action of life-giving and sanctification. He establishes the Church infallibly in the truth. It is he who makes the Church blossom forth with a marvelous supernatural fruitfulness.”

In conclusion, of the dozen Solemnities throughout the Liturgical Year, there are three that stand out as the most important. These, in a special way share the work of the 3 persons of the Trinity: Christmas: God the Father’s love in giving us his Son, Easter: God the Son’s love, and Pentecost: God the Holy Spirit’s love.

Surely, Pentecost should have its greater impact in our lives. The promised gift of the Holy Spirit brings about the Birthday of the Church (that was conceived in the side of Christ crucified). For, as ‘Acts’ reminds us: “This Jesus God raised up, and of that, we all are witnesses” (2:32).

For, spiritually we too at Pentecost experience the ‘Tongues of Fire’: in his Gift of Truth and Love, and the ‘Powerful Wind’: in his Gift of Courage and Peace.

Project Advance 2025 Letter

My dear Parishioners of Sts. Peter & Paul Parish,

Especially in this season of Easter, we remember Jesus’ words: “Behold, I make all things new” (Rev. 21:5). This newness is now historically so in the Catholic Church, with the gift of our new Pope, Leo XIV. His inaugural words to us emphasized the need for the Faith in order to give meaning to life itself. The Popes have often stated that 95% of the Church’s life and ministry is found on the parish level.

Here at Sts. Peter & Paul parish we provide the opportunity for the people of God to worship Him and be guided and strengthened to share Him with others. Our parish celebrates the Eucharist as the source and summit of the Christian life. Along with this, we provide prayerful, spiritual, educational and social activities in order for parishioners to live and deepen their faith; for themselves and for others.

As your pastor for these past four years, it gives me special joy to see an increase of membership, and ongoing inquiry to join us. The noticed increase of construction of new residences (including the New Oakridge Park) reveals that this trend will continue.

The building of our new Parish Centre is necessary in order to meet our present and future needs. It will provide so many opportunities for parishioners to gather and celebrate and deepen our faith.

We need a place to provide Funeral and Sacramental receptions, opportunities for retreats and recollections, regular gatherings after Sunday Mass, as well as other special annual events. Ongoing are the need to hold Catechism classes, as well as new Catholics, youth, young adults and seniors to gather.

Our Cartier Hall is up for sale for the optimum price. We still need more funds in order to move ahead with Construction. I would say, more than ever, your support is needed at this time. Without it, it would be difficult to secure a mortgage for the rest of the Construction cost.

I ask you to prayerfully consider a pledge to Project Advance 2025. This would be gratefully appreciated and assist our parish to also live out the proclamation to: “make all things new!” Blessings and Peace!
Fr. Ron Thompson, Pastor
